

Alpha Life Trends

Charting your Life Journey

Celestial Navigation
September/October 2007
Highlight

Alpha Life Trends is an innovative newsletter that utilizes Astrology and Numerology to chart out our Life Journey. This practical application correlates the events in the celestial sky with the events in our life. The interpretation of Alpha Life Trends illuminates the Divine purpose of events and brings greater understanding to the spiritual purpose of our Life Journey. The focus of Alpha Life Trends newsletter is to provide a detailed look at the deeper side of the Self and the Divinely guided events in our life.

September has the focus of key planetary aspects within the first 10 days of the month followed by the Solar Eclipse/New Moon on September 11th. These beginning aspects provide the activity for September that has events jumping. The later part of September, the planets move into place in preparation for the Mercury retrograde occurring in October. The deep and perceptive sign of Scorpio hosts the Mercury retrograde, however Mercury retrogrades back into the sign of Libra., emphasizing negotiation, mediation, balance and harmony. This prompts us to take a look deeper within the situations that are occurring in our life especially as the people around us begin to unveil their true philosophy. Because Pluto turns direct in early September and is moving through the last degrees of philosophical Sagittarius, we will begin to see the true ethics and philosophy of the people around us. This October Mercury retrograde will begin to show the deeper Scorpio elements and how these deeper elements of ethics and motives have impacted others. The river of Truth runs deep within a person as well as the hidden elements of ill-motives and ethics. The Scorpio element within each person hosts these deeper parts to our true self. Mercury retrogrades from October 12th through November 1st and the revealing and viewing of our true self will begin to shine through as the layers are peeled away.

The Lunar Eclipse on August 28th in the signs of Virgo/Pisces and the Solar Eclipse in the sign of Virgo occurs on September 11th. These are the bookends that house the turning of the tide for many aspects during this NINE year and will set the final elements of completion into place. The impact of the Solar Eclipse and the Mercury retrograde in Scorpio/Libra will begin to show the areas that will house the changing events for us. The emphasis of Scorpio is to review the deeper motivation and ethics issues within our life. With Mercury touching into Scorpio, the points of ethics will be determined, then the shifting energy will move back into Libra, to align our ethics with those that are of similar make to bring about negotiations, balance and harmony. As Mercury retrogrades, we will find our relationships changing as these points of ethics become the connecting points for changes. Similar to a magnet, we will find ourselves drawn to others accordingly. This change will become the major energy transitions as we move through the remainder of the year and prepare for the ONE year of 2008. We will find that we have new people entering our life that have similar ethics points.

Celestial Navigation

For each sign of the zodiac

Our journey through the Lunar and Solar Eclipse as well as the Mercury retrograde moves us through the last phase of the NINE year of completion. We will be finishing up many of the aspects of this year and this NINE-year cycle that began in 1999. We will also be preparing for the transition of Jupiter and Pluto to move into Capricorn as 2008 evolves us into our new NINE-year cycle from 2008-2017.

ARIES - The Solar Eclipse highlights your work schedules and health regiments, which gives you a boost in this area. You may change your work or health regimes to address a particular issue. Preparing for Pluto's entrance into your career may be preceded with changes in this arena. The Mercury retrograde will focus on your partnership and the financial changes that are happening within your connection with others. You may choose to begin to invest in yourself and so you will begin to make definite plans to adjust many areas of your life as you make choices about your work, career and self purpose. The beginnings that come from this Solar Eclipse will send you forward into the new and different directions that you have chosen.

TAURUS - The Solar Eclipse occurs in the area of your creativity, self expression and creative pursuits. You have a strong and positive energy movement with your children or young people and creative projects. This will spark your strong focus to utilize your self expression as your strong foundation of knowledge and philosophy will begin to shift you into new directions. You may move or set your goals into new locations or directions. The Mercury retrograde will shift your work environment and your connection with people. You will adjust your work environment and the connections you have with others, but it is mainly to adjust the focus you have with your self-expression and creative energy. Issues dealing with partnership and relationships will change because of the shift of new people within your work environment. There may be new people that are coming into your life because of the major changes in your career focus or direction.

GEMINI – The Solar Eclipse brings a strong focus toward your new home environment. You may have a change or transition of your home environment because of the career focus or a job change. You may also be prompted to move because of another change in your spouse's career focus. You will be able to connect with your home, with getting a new home or connecting with a better home or something that shifts the focus to the positive issues of change. You have been dealing with many of the adjusting and shifting sands from your spouse's world. Whether these changes were out of your control, the elements that resulted were certainly the type of shifts that seemed to always catch you off guard. The Mercury retrograde will impact your creativity and self expression in your new work or health regime. You are looking at a deeper level of your work or health and making new determinations of the people that feel prompted to connect with. This becomes important as you want to move your life into new directions as you solidify your foundation.

CANCER – The Solar Eclipse gives you a new surge of energy in your ideas and communication arena. You will begin to connect with many of the new thoughts and ideas that are now the right time to bring them forward. You want to find the right expression for them and so your ideas are jumping. The Mercury retrograde will impact your new expression of what you feel and the impact on your family and the area of your life that you want to change with regard to people, partnership and social interactions. You will be changing your relationships as well, connecting with those of similar ethics because of the great importance of communication. You will see that the deeper parts of yourself need to have the connection to relate to others about your true feelings. You will want to make the changes of your home environment to bring in those that have that ethics point of connection.

LEO – The Solar Eclipse will impact you financially, giving you a jump into the new beginnings that you have been pursuing. The Solar Eclipse will shine the light onto the financial truth that has been evading you for quite some time and will begin to open the door to some very positive adjustments. Your creativity and self expression has been consistent, yet the challenge financially has not been connected to the value of your expression. The Mercury retrograde will begin to shift that perspective by opening the door to the deeper level that will adjust in your home environment and become more focused with the communication you have with other people. The major adjustments there will give you the opportunity to get your home straightened out as it relates to others as your financial picture comes into alignment. Ultimately your creativity will move into a positive work environment change that will open major doors in 2008. .

VIRGO – The Solar Eclipse in Virgo puts the spotlight onto your Self and your image and the strength of character you have shown during the challenges in your home environment. Your emotional world has been rocked for many years, since 1995 that has challenged your Self and your character. The New Beginnings provides you with the chance to show the truth of character that can only occur when one goes through this type of challenge. The Mercury retrograde in October will impact your financial arena and there will be some adjustments in that arena because of your strong character portrayed. You will be preparing to move your energy forward in 2008 that will open the door to your creative pursuits because of the experiences you have had. Even through the challenges you have maintained your true convictions and your true philosophy, which has not been easy, but you have walked the path and now your true self can be seen in this light.

LIBRA – The Solar Eclipse in Virgo opens the door to connect with your true inner self and to find the truth that has been within your conscious. You will begin to see situations in their entirety as the Solar Eclipse/New Moon shines the light onto the truth of situations. Your communication and mental clarity has been challenged for quite some time as you have been honing your skills of clarity. With the Mercury retrograde in Scorpio allows you to see the true situations from a deeper perspective, you will then see how these situations impacted you and your image of Self. This Mercury retrograde will adjust your image according to the deeper values that you discover by seeing situations from their true perspective. Your image of yourself will naturally change and adjust accordingly. Your financial situations will also be adjusting too as your perspective of your self is changed. The auditing new beginnings of Virgo will have a strong impact on your destiny as your image and your finances are aligned.

SCORPIO – The Solar Eclipse in Virgo opens the door to your qualities to become visible to a larger group. You are one who prefers to keep a low profile, however, your ethics and sense of following what is right will become the spotlight for many people looking at your life from a very different perspective. You have financially struggled and yet you have walked the pathway that has housed your beliefs and your philosophy. You will begin to see the financial challenges ease as the new options of communication come your way. You will begin to recognize the opportunities that will come your way because of the spotlight from the larger scope of others that see who you are and all that you do. You will begin to move your life into the new directions that naturally reflect the ethics and value system connected to them. With Mercury retrograde moving through your destiny, many adjustments will be made according to the true person you have shown to be.

SAGITTARIUS – You have gone through so many changes and transitions to allow the true Self to emerge. The trial by fire aspects to hone in on the energy that makes up you as a person is coming to a plateau, but is also positioning you to catapult you into a whole new environment. The Solar Eclipse will bring a new career and business focus into your life that opens up new directions. The changes in your home environment prompt you to look at the handwriting on the wall that is giving you the signals that a new career is coming. The Mercury retrograde will first touch into your inner destiny and bring out a new “mission impossible” that has a lot more to do with people. You will find that the people out in the outside world are changing accordingly. The ethics that you have within are going to search through a new batch of people in order to find those that are aligned with who you are and the connection point of ethics. You will begin to look at these shifts and see that you are being moved into new directions according to the focus toward a new career setting. Your shifts will begin to evolve as September and October’s events start rolling. You may see that you are rolling past the place you thought you would go and into a whole new direction.

CAPRICORN – The Solar Eclipse provides you with a new ability to see situations in their true perspective. You have put a lot of focus onto your philosophy and the ability to see situations in their truest form. Your perspectives have been challenged for many years and your natural talents not seen in their truest light. From the new beginnings that occur with this Solar Eclipse, you will find that your perspectives will be vindicated as correct and the challenges since 1995 will begin to culminate into a successful showing of your talents and the inner ethics that truly exist within. The Mercury retrograde will impact your career and you will make great strides within the situations that you are dealing with currently. All of these situations are preparing for a grand entrance highlighting your abilities and the projects you have been working on for many years. As the Mercury retrograde begins to unveil the truth of your perceptions, you will find yourself moving through the important relationships that give you a new connection with others that share your ethics points of connection. Ultimately your goals with humanity will impact the people that you align with within your career and business pursuits. You have very high ethics and you will change the people within your business world to connect with those that are of similar ethics, which will reveal your new image, your new career for 2008.

AQUARIUS – The Solar Eclipse lands in your life prompting you to connect with your ethics and to determine your value system that is the root of who you truly are inside. With this connecting point you will begin to have several events roll into your life. The transition that you have experienced in your humanitarian focus has honed in your skills and understanding of yourself and others. This begins to be the foundation that allows you to jump into a whole new focus of life. With Jupiter and Pluto moving slowly toward your destiny, you will begin to see that the area you were involved in is now shifting to reveal a whole new theme, one that prompts you to move into a whole new career. The Mercury retrograde that opens the door for this new career occurs with your points of ethics and then rolls back into the philosophy that you share with others. You may communicate to others and due to their lack of experience or perception of the importance, there is less and less to share with. This prompts you to look into a whole new career path one that is key and important to your life and your destiny. The changes that occur in September and October will prepare you for your new transition as you move into 2008.

PISCES – With the Solar Eclipse impacting your relationship with others, you will begin to share with others unlike you have had the opportunities for in the past. You will become your true self and you will look at all relationships as a way to truly express who you are. Your career and all dealings in the outside world have made you very pensive about events in the outside world, yet now you have a greater sense of strength and recognize that the challenges in the outside world now allow you to connect with others in a way you haven’t before. Your ethics in your philosophy will be the connecting point that you now share with others and become a stronger focus and a light for truth as you no longer hesitate to share and speak your philosophy. You are preparing for a whole new image to emerge, one that has the wisdom of the impact of the outside world and the true philosophical perspective as to understand the truer spiritual reason. This was always the shifting sands that made your world so shaky, but now the shifting sands no longer shake your inner world. You have truly shifted the value to be within your ethics, to move you into 2008 and not allow the outside world to impact your inner world. . .

Astrological Profile

September 2007

The month of September provides the turning of the tide that allows many situations and issues to be moved into resolution. September is universally a NINE month in numerology and so many completions, conclusions and finalizing of situations is the major theme. The Celestial Trends for September mirrors the theme to bring situations to completion. Many of the situations will experience a turning of the tide in the first 11 days of September with the crescendo of the Solar Eclipse/New Moon on September 11th. Not only does September signal the final chapter of the nine-year cycle, but Pluto turning direct signals the final lap of Pluto in Sagittarius, where it has been since 1995. Many situations occur the first full week of September and provide us with the new beginnings of the Solar Eclipse in auditing Virgo. On the 21st we have two aspects that bring together the alignment of the inner and outer as Venus/Neptune bring the resolution aligned with the spiritual blueprint, and the Mars/Pluto connection creates the activities in the outer world that mirror the necessary events that make it all happen. These events in September usher us toward the new beginnings that will emerge in October as the Mercury retrograde is previewed beginning September 27th with Mercury moving into Scorpio.

Celestial Trends

September 2007

September 2 – Saturn moves out of Leo into Virgo

Saturn moves out of Leo and into Virgo, where it will stay through October 2009, then touches back in from April to July 2010. Saturn is the boot camp sergeant, being in auditing Virgo is a very similar energy, which provides very positive and important opportunities for transition. Saturn in Leo was challenging as Leo's expression and natural expansive energy was curtailed and corralled. The shift of Saturn out of Leo will bring more excitement and Leo spark into expression and Saturn's movement into Virgo will provide a better energy fit. We will all feel this positive shift and our expressions will be able to move forward instead of experience continual delays and repression. Saturn moving into Virgo also comes into opposition by sign with the Uranus winds of change, which require that an alignment of the inner Pisces element and the outer expression have the auditing trail. This Virgo/Pisces will usher in situations that have been allowed to wreck havoc while Pluto has been in Sagittarius. But the Saturn/Uranus alignment provides the gate keeper for auditing and alignment before any passage into Pluto in Capricorn will be allowed. This movement of Saturn into Virgo will be a huge factor in requirements of this audit of alignment, reconciliation and accountability. Sergeant Saturn requires responsibility and accountability, and Virgo requires rightness and ethics. This shift is huge as Virgo provides the connecting point to the Uranus winds of Change in Pisces. Both Virgo and Pisces are squares (doorways) for Jupiter and Pluto in Sagittarius. The doorways can only be passed if the rights of passage is achieved. Saturn connecting with Pisces winds of change, blows in information that seems to have a disconnect with accountability, responsibility, and issues of ethics.

September 7 – Pluto turns direct 26° Sagittarius

Pluto turns direct at 26 Sagittarius and takes a direct pathway toward the next sign of Capricorn. This becomes the huge turning of the tide that we have all been waiting for allowing all of our philosophy and belief aspirations to continue through the trial by fire events that seemed to leave us more singed and doubting more of our self. However through this trial by fire, we have continued to rise up and pursue our direction that we felt was right and this has allowed our philosophy and belief system to become galvanized and the passion of our beliefs to be drawn with our sword. With Saturn now in Virgo, the ethical issues of accountability will begin to be the audit that is connected to the Pisces x-ray system that is activated. This auditing x-ray system becomes the gate keeper for the rights of passage to determine the motives and ethics while Pluto was in Sagittarius (since 1995). Pluto represents power and the use of power. If Pluto's power was mis-used then Saturn in Virgo/Uranus in Pisces x-ray system will open the closets and drawers that house the information that has not been in alignment or in accountability with Sergeant Saturn's strict requirements. Between now and when Pluto moves into Capricorn, January 25, 2008, we will see many x-ray systems light up for those who have had the philosophy of "lie, cheat, steal and win". This winning of the jackpot will not be the jackpot that was sought after or desired, but instead will be the notification by Saturn in Virgo and Uranus in Pisces that the rights of passage are not in alignment and another pathway will be provided. Jupiter moving in Sagittarius behind Pluto will slowly scoop up the folks that require a different pathway, and moved accordingly to the information that is brought out of the closets and drawers as all things become visible. Pluto has been in Sagittarius since 1995, so it is a long journey that has a great deal of effort and actions to review, which create a groove of philosophy and a storehouse of actions, ethics and motives. This Pluto stash becomes the reservoir of power that now becomes the water that breaks through the dam and either wrecks havoc with everything that has been done or becomes the wave of energy and power that surges us forward.

September 8 – Venus turns direct – 16° Leo

Venus has been retrograde since July 27th, which has given us into situations that have not been able to have solutions, thus many potentially great situations sit at the weigh station, not able to become their truest potential. Situations shelved until important issues are allowed to be resolved. Venus turning direct brings forward solutions that can now be brought to the situation and implemented. The resolutions of issues and situations that seemed to be in stale mate, can begin to be taken off the shelf and brought into potential. The Leo spark can finally be allowed to ignite the magic within situations that have been held down since Saturn went into Leo

July 2005. With Saturn is no longer on Leo, the true Leo spark and energy can emerge unfettered and Venus expands and moves situations into the rightful direction. Venus moving forward in Leo brings in solutions and implements them, adding the magical element that makes situations into something spectacular. Symbolized by Venus turning direct, events begin to bustle all through September, bringing forward the magical ingredient allowing situations to turn into something wonderful. Venus will be in Leo until October 8th, bringing the spark of creativity, optimism, and excitement to the current situations. Important resolutions are brought forward and implemented, thus bringing many wonderful and exciting situations to life each and every day of Venus in Leo. The sun rises in so many situations that have had darkness in control.

September 9 – Sun opposition Uranus retrograde – 17° Virgo/17° Pisces

Sun connecting to the changing winds of Uranus spotlights the important issues that have been brought forward from information discovered on August 28th. This spotlight also contains the assistance of Sergeant Saturn's approach to reviewing the information as well, which we didn't have on August 28th. The spotlight on the information of today also prepares us for the Solar Eclipse/New Moon on September 11th, which opens up the Virgo door of rightness and the auditing perspective that Saturn also brings into the equation. Uranus has been in Pisces since March of 2003, opening up a new focus for the doorway viewing for Pluto in Sagittarius. The intuitive sign of Pisces rules the inner world that we all carry with us and becomes the spiritual viewpoint that provides the matrix of definitions in which we see and interpret the world. That is why spiritual and intuitive Pisces also rules delusion, deception, and the like because we can hide our true matrix of definitions from others, but ultimately it becomes visible through our own decisions, actions, and use or mis-use of power. The Sun connecting with Uranus spotlights the information blowing in the winds of change that provides this visibility. This spotlight also prepares us for the Solar Eclipse/New Moon on the 11th, as a way to begin the process of resolution and then to move us forward according to Sergeant Saturn's auditing accountability.

September 11 – Sun conjunct Moon – Solar Eclipse/New Moon – 18° Virgo

Today, the Solar Eclipse/New Moon opens the door in auditing Virgo to bring the alignment of rightness to the issues that have been paramount in our life since 1995. Saturn was at 18 Pisces at the time that Pluto went into Sagittarius, and so the issues that we began at that time have come to be reviewed by both Pisces and Virgo. The inner and outer alignment and auditing system provides the completeness that is now moving us to the end of the Pluto in Sagittarius road. Whatever our ethics, motives and actions have been since then will become the bridge to the next phase. The Solar Eclipse/New Moon of today provides the opportunity to be ushered to our appropriate gate in which the auditing and x-ray system determines accordingly for our rights of passage. Our direction is determined and is provided today that opens a new door for our journey forward. The location of 18° Virgo in our charts give the indication of the doorway that is opening and becoming the entrance for our new journey.

September 21 – Mars opposition Pluto – 27° Gemini/27° Sagittarius

Mars rules energy and Pluto rules our use of power. The opposition becomes the balancing tools that bring energy into our life that usher us into one direction or another. Mars activates situations and becomes a powerful element in the Sagittarius energy for alignment into our appropriate directions as the open door provided by the Solar Eclipse. Today as the alignment takes place between Mars and Pluto, the second aspect of today becomes yet another key to the day. Venus resolutions are lining up with the Neptune spiritual blueprint. The combination of both of these aspects provides the cosmic ushering energy to bring us to an appropriate alignment according to our true inner and outer alignment. Mars in the information sign of Gemini activates the information that has become important in this process of resolution and the information in closets and drawers that are required by the auditing and alignment process. Mars activates this information as it is brought into the environment with Pluto's journey to the end of the Sagittarius road. The information determines where we begin to veer as we get closer to the transition of Pluto moving into Capricorn.

ALSO;

September 21 – Venus opposition Neptune – 19° Leo/19° Aquarius

Venus brings resolution and harmony into the environment and Neptune provides the spiritual blueprint that determines our course according to the inner spiritual connection. The Venus resolutions that were determined on September 8th began to be implemented and have now reached a point that is joined with Mars/Pluto energy to bring the resolution to the outside circumstances. Venus and Neptune provide the inner spiritual connection for resolution and the Mars/Pluto energy begin to make it all happen in the outside world. Today will be a very active day in which the spiritual blueprint align with the outer circumstances that emerge,

September 26 – Sun opposition Moon – Full Moon/Harvest Moon – 3° Libra/3° Aries

This full moon becomes very important as the signs of Aries/Libra will become the doorway signs for Pluto's next phase as it moves into Capricorn. The Full Moon provides an intuitive view of the upcoming environment as we move into our next phase. The high tide brings information of all that is to come in the next phase. The Harvest Moon also brings us to the completion point of this current phase as we harvest our crop that we planted, nurtured and grew with our Pluto power in Sagittarius. As Pluto nears Capricorn, we will see that off in the distance our new phase has brought us the options to align our career with humanity in a way that can only occur if the Aries sense of Self and the Libra sense of resolution is connected to a higher understanding of humanity linked to the true purpose of Life. Any disjointed philosophy and use of Pluto in Sagittarius power would only keep true resolutions from occurring and would impact humanity. As Pluto moves into Capricorn, the issues of Aries – clarity of Self and Libra – resolution of fairness and balance must become the doorways that are also passed. The Full Moon of today provides this intuitive understanding of the next phase to occur as we continue our spiritual journey through life.

September 27 – Mercury moves into Scorpio (to turn retrograde at 9° Scorpio – Oct 12)

Mercury's information moves into Scorpio's deeper perspective to view our motives, ethics and true values. Mercury will ultimately turn retrograde in Scorpio on October 12th, which will give us a chance to review our motives and ethics especially as it relates to Libra's relationships and negotiations. This becomes an important factor as the Libra sense of resolution part of the Full Moon on the 26th is a vital part of the upcoming phase. The fact that Mercury is moving into Scorpio gives us the opportunity to walk into the deeper ocean of our Self to view all that is below the surface. Our motives, ethics and true values are the environment that is on our ocean floor. From this depth comes the deep healing waters or the turbulent unresolved issues that rock our inner security and create actions that are agitating and potentially destructive. This mercury retrograde becomes important in the understanding of the elements that make up who we are and to view these deeper parts of our Self is the key to understand the transition of this time.

September 28 – Mars enters Cancer (to turn retrograde at 12° Cancer - Nov 15)

Mars energizes and activates the sign that it is in. Mars in Cancer activates our emotional world and creates the need to bring our emotional connection to the issues at hand. Mars enters Cancer and will ultimately turn retrograde mid November to rolls back through Cancer, reconnect with Pluto and reach 24° Gemini before turning direct on January 30th. This becomes significant because of the fact that the Mars/Pluto activity on September 21st and January 2nd in Gemini/Sagittarius is finally flowing forward in Cancer/Capricorn by March 7th, 2008. Many activities will become corralled by Mars in Cancer retrograde that the far-reaching effects will also take us into 2008 and prompt our new emotional alignment because of the situations emerging through the Mars/Pluto connections. The revision of situations and issues will become part of this retrograde process and the placement of the sign of Cancer within our charts shows the area that will house that will feel the activation of our emotional world. Revisions of our outer world will impact our inner emotions. This will also be the same area that will house our activation of passion and will launch us into the new phase of Pluto in Capricorn, as we activate this passion to enter into our career or passion. The transitions of our emotions into our passion to make a difference will follow the lines of major milestones on September 21st, January 2nd and March 7th. These are the dates that provide the stepping stones that will launch us into our new career with the passion to make a difference.

Numerology Profile

September 2007

September is universally a NINE month, which brings many completions and conclusions into view. The light at the end of the tunnel is in view and by the Full Moon/Harvest Moon on September 26th, we will have reached the end of many issues, situations and events. The turning of the last corner, rounding the bend is apropos for September's energy. Many celestial events occur which turns the cog of the cosmic hands of time that bring the situations to the end of their day. With September being a NINE month in the NINE year of 2007 we are required to bring important resolutions into place. As the last chapter is read through September, there is a focus to bring all situations together, tie up loose ends and be ready to get on with our next phase. With the first 11 days of September, the celestial aspects line up to make impacts one right after the other, culminating with the Solar Eclipse/New Moon providing the archway that signals the last lap is underway. With Saturn moving into auditing Virgo, Pluto and Venus turning direct, Sun connecting to the changing winds of Uranus, the elements are all lined up ready to harvest the crop of the last NINE-year cycle. By the time we get to the Harvest Moon/Full Moon on September 26th, our field will be complete and the NINE month of September will have harvested all that we have done since 1999 and we will take our crop to Market. Our crop is taken into October's ONE month to determine the ticket that we have earned to move us to the appropriate gate. Mercury retrograde in Scorpio views the in depth motives, ethics and moves us along.

Numerology Trends

September 2007

ONE – The month of September provides a new surge of energy to move your new directions into your life that you have been working on all year long. Many of the choices and options you wanted are similar to ordering from a catalog, the items you want are no longer available. So all through the year you have had to go to Plan B many times to decide on something different than what you thought. This turns out to be a blessing in disguise, although it doesn't feel like it at the time. You will move your life into new directions as the celestial aspect of early September begin to open up even more opportunities than you had all year. The Solar Eclipse/New Moon will have been worth waiting for and you will begin to see the value of being patient and waiting for the right thing to come along. You are getting ready to jump onto the diving board and dive head long into a whole new direction, which will be the right thing for you. The Mercury retrograde experience will shift around the people in your life, but only after you have decided to move into your rightful direction.

TWO – September provides the events that brings all of your efforts together. You have spent a lot of time working with others to help. You will look back to see all that you have done and tie up many loose ends. You will be gathering your strength and gathering the focus of moving your life to a new phase and a new direction. You have been waiting for the right time when situations will call you into the audition that will launch your new career. The audition will call you in early October and you will not only belt out your song, but you will be able to put the whole package together and move into a much greater place than you could have imagined. The long hard efforts you have been working toward will begin to show the great potential that is moving you closer to your true essence. Your creativity will begin to feel the power and your time of sitting on the bench is coming to a close. By the end of September you will be ready to jump into song and the timing of the audition and October's promise to shine the light on your abilities will become the energy that moves you into your true environment, built for success.

THREE – The month of September opens the door for many creative opportunities to move your life along in some very positive ways. You have made important choices with relationships, children and other creative projects. You will move these choices into important directions as you take the next step to expand on what you have in your life. You are ready to experience this expansion in a big way and you are poised to take the next step. The New Moon/Solar Eclipse will open the door that you have been waiting for. You will also begin to express the creative energy that you need to use to move your life along in the ways desired. You will make many bold moves that are important for you as you no longer want to be held back, you are ready to bust out of the situations that have kept you penned in. Great ideas, great opportunities, go for it.

FOUR – The month of September gives you a whole new addition to your list of tasks already on the first list. And you thought that you were getting close to completing them. Surprise, now you've got a whole list more of projects, tasks and requirements. This is your year of effort, so pumping iron continues and the weight only gets increased. But strength is the reward for the year and September will be the time to move your efforts to their next level. This will be good and rewarding, but yes require more efforts as well. All through the new requirements of September, you will be organizing your approach and determining the most efficient use of your energy. This is also the product of the FOUR year as you put many talents into action. The Mercury retrograde that will occur in October will be the first glimmer of the results of your efforts, so keep going.

FIVE – The month of September gives you a whole lot of changes and new opportunities. You are ready to break free from situations that have been like an albatross around your neck. You have been letting go of one situation after another and having to deal with many different scenarios. You are using your knowledge and your communication skills as you are expanding into new avenues. Your FIVE energy opens the door for another series of change and the New Moon/Solar Eclipse brings some unexpected opportunities that are more pleasing than you would ordinarily think. Make the most of them and move your energies forward as you consider your different options. The opportunities of September roll into taking more responsibility in October so, you will be required to step up the pace a bit more than you thought and you'll be prompted to be proactive in grabbing at the new responsibilities to show your character.

SIX – The month of September holds many situations regarding your home and your work environments that require you to resolve. Many of these situations will begin to resolve themselves as September moves through the Venus turning direct. These situations require that you bring forward a part of the resolution and bring harmony to the situation. Ultimately the solutions that you bring forward are puzzle pieces that create the resolution to the bigger picture. Health and healing is also a part of the SIX and you have had some issues come forward that also required you to change and adjust your health regime, but it should all begin to find resolutions for all of the important issues that have been given to you to resolve. October opens the door for you to look within to find the value of Self and the directions that are prompted from the inner level that are similar to assignments from above. The transition from September into October can at times feel a bit bumpy, but it is because you are moving your inner strength and inner values into the outside world. .

SEVEN – The month of September becomes a time to review of the elements of the year. You have a great deal of inner strength, inner depth and analytical ability. Your intuition is also a strong resource that you use in all aspects of your life. The year has allowed you to deepen your understanding about situations and has brought you back to your roots and your true essence. You have made many important decisions this year, reviewing the situations and your response to situations is intertwined with a determination to make a difference. You are reviewing your abilities and beginning to recognize all that you bring to the situations. With a tendency to underestimate yourself as well as understate yourself, you will be gathering strength and determination to launch into October with the power that is aimed to make a difference. Once you take aim, focus your abilities, the horsepower that you are able to harness makes for a powerful entrance into October. You will ride into October with your impressive chariot with your horsepower and be ready to make a difference. You become the unexpected contender that brings power to the surface, ready to ride. October becomes the journey of a lifetime.

EIGHT – The month of September you will review all that has occurred this year and will get to a point that you find you have accomplished a great deal. You have conquered so many situations by your own abilities and your own strength. Your review will bring you to see the situations in their entirety and you begin to recognize the incredible strength that you have utilized during this time. Not only for the events of this year, but all of the last eight years. You have come out on top and have climbed to the summit of your success. You will review the qualities of self that have been born and strengthened during this journey and you will be ready to let go of the situations and be ready to move to your next phase. You will walk through September as if to say your goodbyes to the old situations that have played their part in your strength and you will jump into October as the old situations dissolve and disappear, to reveal the new you. You have emerged the person that life has crafted with great care and now you are ready to walk off an old stage and onto a weigh station of transition to prepare you for your new direction.

NINE – The month of September brings you to the end of your cycle and you are feeling done with many aspects of your life. You are finding that all of the elements that used to tweak your interest are now winding down and they no longer have the draw they once did. This goes for people, projects, and other things. You will find that the Solar Eclipse/new Moon in September gives you a new inspiration and a new journey that begins to pull at you and doesn't leave you along until you attend to the call of the new journey. This direction is one that is going to not only be of interest, but is going to pull you into the directions that will have you expand your new and true potential. You are ready to take major strides in this new area and you are also ready to take a completely different path that you have in the past. Your road as you know it is ending and you must go right or left and the events of September will prompt you to make some very important choices. You will make new choices in the later part of September, near the 27th as Mercury moves into Scorpio that will move you into your new and different direction, but one that is truly where you belong.

Astrological Profile

October 2007

October brings us to the threshold of a whole new energy shift. With September's events bringing resolution and completions to the surface, we enter October with the view of a whole new life, a whole new direction. This brings us to a point in which we will walk closer to the bridge that we created to take us from the Pluto in Sagittarius phase to the Pluto in Capricorn phase. The Sagittarius philosophy, ethics and aspirations that we have earned during the trial by fire scenarios will be in the process of collection by Jupiter in Sagittarius. Jupiter's collection of our philosophy hones and galvanizes during the trial by fire events experienced since 1995. Our use or mis-use of Pluto's power was to either build our inner strength or to use our power over others. The time is quickly approaching when we will begin to walk the red carpet to the next phase of our life. With October being a ONE month, our new road will take us toward our new direction and the bridge that we have built. There may be people who have only used their power over others and so their road ends, they have not built a bridge, and life will change accordingly. October's events will especially bring out the Scorpio investments of motives, ethics and inner values to revise the direction of our life. The Mercury retrograde will bring the appropriate information to the surface that contains the Scorpio elements of all that exists within our inner investments. Our inner bank account becomes the issue at this time as Jupiter continues to collect our efforts since 1995.

Celestial Trends

October 2007

October 7 – Venus enters Virgo

Venus rules harmony, balance and resolutions. Venus entering into Virgo is significant because of the Venus retrograde process that has occurred since July 27th. There have been a whole series of circumstances that have been part of the Venus retrograde process to bring resolution into many circumstances and situations. Most of the Venus retrograde occurred in August to bring to focus the problems that needed to be resolved. With Venus turning direct September 8th, situations will be ready to have solutions integrated to bring harmony back into place. The integration process occurred in September and the resolutions necessary to reinstate balance and harmony. Now that Venus is moving into Virgo, the auditing trail and the reconciliations can begin to occur. Virgo is the sign to make all the checks and balances come out correct and Venus can now move through Virgo to actually make this a reality. October 13th, when Venus connects with Sergeant Saturn, the boot camp sergeant can check all the boxes and make sure all is in order. Saturn requires order and so the 13th becomes the date to dot the i's and cross the t's.

October 10 – Sun conjunct Moon – New Moon – 17° Libra

The New Moon in Libra brings a new level of balance and harmony to situations. This New Moon, representing new beginnings and new directions opens the door for a new level of situations to emerge with the integration of mediations and negotiations. Because Venus rules the sign of Libra, many of the resolutions that are a part of the Venus process are also relevant with this New Moon. Libra brings a new focus of balance and harmony and the fact that the New Moon has the Venus/Libra element, a new phase of the journey has been established. The fact that tomorrow Mercury turns retrograde and moves back into Libra also brings to the surface other elements that will provide yet further important elements of resolutions.

October 11 – Mercury turns retrograde – 10° Scorpio (back to 23° Libra – November 1)

Mercury rules information and with Mercury turning retrograde, there is a requirement for further review and more information. Because Mercury has moved into the sign of Scorpio, a requirement to look deeper into situations comes into play. Mercury in Scorpio rules information that is below the surface or underneath the tablecloth. The issue of Mercury turning retrograde in Scorpio and moving back into Libra indicates that a deeper perspective is required in order to understand the issues of relationships, partnerships and all interactions with people. This causes another review to take place that brings relevant information to the surface that will impact the situations greatly. This Mercury retrograde will pull out more information that needs to be put into place according to the true location it belongs. Mercury will return into Libra on October 24th and our focus will shift from the information to what the information means about our relationships with people. Specific people in our life will be the focus of this information as harmony and balance is ultimately the focus.

October 13 – Venus conjunct Saturn – 4° Virgo

Venus connects with Sergeant Saturn, so the boot camp sergeant can check all the boxes and make sure all is in order. Saturn requires order and the events of today becomes the date to dot the i's and cross the t's.

Venus first connected with Saturn in early July while still in Leo and when Venus turned retrograde, Venus again connected with Saturn, August 13th. Now that Venus is direct and is in a different sign, the auditing sign of Virgo, we can ensure that all is in it's proper order for the resolutions of Venus to bring harmony and balance to situations once again. With Saturn in Virgo, the auditing aspects will be brought into our life as we work toward the end of the year to bring reconciliation to the year, the nine-year cycle since 1999, and the Pluto in Sagittarius issues since 1995. Saturn puts all efforts, intentions, motives, ethics and values in order and the tallying and assessment process occurs. Saturn stays in Virgo through October 2009, then touches back in from April to July 2010. During Saturn's solid stay in Virgo (through October 2009), the auditing process will become an important phase because of the combination of Uranus in Pisces/Saturn in Virgo becomes the power of the inner and outer auditing and reviewing process. Pisces is the inner aspects and brings the x-ray vision of all that exists inside to the surface while Saturn is doing it's audit in the opposite sign of Virgo. The opens the door for major changes of Uranus to blow on the winds of change as many adjustments continue to occur through Saturn in Virgo, but also through Uranus's stay in Pisces (through March 2011).

October 23 – Sun conjunct Mercury retrograde – 0° Scorpio

Sun brings the spotlight to the Mercury retrograde process. With Sun barely into Scorpio and Mercury at the last degree of Scorpio, we are given a peak into the deeper aspects of Scorpio's information. This hands off the important information that will be the issues that we go back to rethink and revise partnerships and relationship issues that have been the focus during this retrograde phase. Scorpio brings the hidden elements to the surface and with this connection the information bubbles up from the depths and is the focus of the Sun's emphasis. Obviously part of an important piece of information needed in the Libra negotiation and mediation process, this previously hidden aspect now becomes the valuable element that will bring about a true negotiation.

October 25 – Sun opposition Moon – Full Moon – 2° Scorpio/2° Taurus

This full moon emphasizes the inner and outer values of Taurus and Scorpio. With Taurus ruling money and Scorpio ruling investments, the full moon brings important issue to be addressed. Whether the values are actually money or if they are investments of time, emotions or careers, the inner and outer alignment is the issue surrounding this full moon. The inner motives, ethics and values will have an outer impact through the Taurus element, allowing only that which is planted of good to reap of good. The seeds planted become the crop ready to harvest. As we harvest our crop we begin to realize that the field has completed it's purpose and we must move to a new field. Whether we want to or not becomes the issue of our investment. We may have to be willing to let go of the field in order to move our emphasis into our next appropriate direction, and let go of all that has been gained or lost. This is only a short delay, but it is ultimately an opportunity to let the Divine energy bring healing to the process while Mercury retrogrades into the harmonious sign of Libra.

October 25 – Venus opposite Uranus – 15° Virgo/15° Pisces

Venus brings resolution and Uranus blows in the winds of change. These two elements may seem at odds as we find that the resolution is just out of our reach and we can feel a bit of sadness with the situations, however as we move from October to November and allow Mercury to turn direct we will find that this delay is only brief and brings a blessing in disguise with the delay. Although we can't see it at this time, the changing winds of Uranus will bring in the blessing in a new month and with the ability to stay longer in our life. The Virgo/Pisces elements open the door for the auditing quality to assess the true inner essence. To have the inner/outer alignment occur brings all things that belong in our life to come in again, this time with a new essence and a more conclusive feeling.

October 31 – Neptune turns direct – 19° Aquarius

Neptune brings in the spiritual blueprint that calls in the issues and people that are to be in our life as we walk into Mercury's final decisions of November 1st. The fact that Neptune calls each of us according to our inner essence has a definite reward that eases our questions and fears that we may have felt on the 25th. Now they can be quieted and the rightness of the spiritual blueprint comes at the time that provides the comfort that we were looking for. Aquarius calls our tribe together and the comfort that this brings is one that truly fills the gap that we yearn to have complete. Neptune turning direct puts all inner aspects together in a way that fulfills our inner essence and makes all things right.

November 1 – Mercury turns direct – 23° Libra

With Mercury turning direct on the first day of November, we are able to shift into a new month and shift into a forward motion. Libra's elements of mediations, negotiations, balance and harmony can now be put together in a way that works and brings resolutions to even the most difficult and the notorious. Mercury puts ideas into place that are capable of resolving issues and bringing harmony to the equation. November is universally a TWO month, but it also has the higher octave of the ELEVEN, bringing a higher spiritual quality to the month. This is the month in which many miracles can begin to happen and the resolution of the difficult and notorious are able to be achieved. Looking to the possibilities of miracles, opens the door for many to become a reality. This change of Mercury's directions on the first day push us past many of the negative emotions that have been so much a part of the back drop and the day to day elements of the past. Letting the bad water go down stream allows the new and fresh water, untainted by the past, to carry our hopes of the miracles to come. Libra brings balance, harmony and great heart-felt energy to come into the situations to heal the deep wounds and to pour the soothing water onto the tears in our spirit. November's miracles will abound and those whose bridge contains these possibilities begin to walk the impossible into their new land.

Numerology Profile

October 2007

October is universally a ONE month, providing the previews for energies moving us into our new direction for 2008. With the Mercury retrograde occurring in October, many of the shifting situations that bring in the new props, people and events for 2008 will occur during this time. Because the Mercury retrograde is occurring in the sign of Scorpio, deeper ethics and motives will be the point that springs for the changes according to the deeper part of our Self. As we move into the ONE month of October, the new energies are using the ethics and motives as the signposts to bring forward the rightful situations accordingly. This will bring us to our rightful passage moving into our gateway that has the new themes and directions for 2008. Many usual and strange events will occur as this ONE energy moves us through doorways into our new direction. We may think that we are headed into one direction and yet we pass that by as we have to leave the past behind and move into our new and rightful direction for 2008. This can cause a surprise, but ultimately the bridge that we have built with Pluto in Sagittarius becomes the bridge to our rightful new directions for Pluto's movement into Capricorn. The career that we have earned due to our true philosophy, ethics and motives, will become visible as the red carpet is rolled out during the later months of the year. Jupiter moving into Capricorn opens the door to our new career with all the bells and whistles and once Pluto moves into Capricorn in January 2008, we will find the actual position we are to play within our new environment. Our new positions may be different than we think, but it is all built upon our efforts during Pluto's time in Sagittarius.

October is universally an ONE month, becoming the bridge to take us from conclusions, completions and resolutions during this NINE year, toward the other side of bridge that will give us a chance to start again. We journey from October through December to prepare for the ONE year of 2008. These events will begin to expand and take us from our past and provide the journey into the new NINE-year cycle that begins in 2008. Whatever events occur in October becomes the preview of things to come, so it behooves us to pay attention to all the situations evolving.

Numerology Trends

October 2007

ONE – The new beginnings that you have carved have brought you to a whole new world, and so you begin to have other choices regarding relationships, new people connections and other opportunities to expand your social world. As being the leader you have new and different directions that require you to expand and connect with others. You may be leaving people behind and picking up new people along the way. This provides the continuation of your new journey to include the self-oriented direction that you have cultivated, but also the emerging desire to connect with others that have a similar pursuit. .

TWO – The time that you have spent waiting and getting everything ready for a new creative project launch, will finally appear as though the finishing touches are being put onto your project so that you can move the creative energy forward. You have been patiently waiting and waiting, but now there is a break in the clouds that signals the time is coming when the events and sunshine will begin to break through the blanket of time. You will line up the right people and will line up the right events to move things forward. The fact that many of these situations begin to click into place will provide the sense of this being the right time, and will open the door for your efforts to move you forward.

THREE – The fact that your creativity has been operating and working with many of the changing events, will begin to open new doors to move these creative ideas into the building phase. With your creative blueprint now showing the ways to the building process, you seem to jump at the chance to move into the building phase, to see your ideas and dreams to become a reality. You are ready to move these thoughts, ideas and dreams into manifestation and you begin to actively pursue the avenues that contain these very options. The Mercury retrograde provide you the opportunity to meet with others that will help to make your dreams become manifested reality. The changes that you make at this time open the door for these very directions to become your avenue.

FOUR – The efforts you have utilized to accomplish your chosen path will begin to walk you up to the summit. These efforts have taken you along a pathway that required an incredible amount of energy and passion to keep going. October's events bring you people that you're your same passion that keep you moving forward and to help you choose the right avenues to pursue. Your work is steadfast and you are beginning to see the light at the end of the tunnel as October's pin-size dot of light keeps you moving forward. You will get to the point that the pin-size dot is getting progressively bigger until you become aware of the breakthrough and can see the possibility, especially after the long journey through the darkness of endless efforts and nose to the grindstone events.

FIVE – The changes that you have gone through this year have helped you to break free from the past situations that kept you rather curtailed and not knowing what to do. The situations that are moving in during Mercury retrograde are coming in to give you changes, options and opportunities to move forward into some new directions. You have had the chance to break out of your old ways and to try many new options. The fact is that you are now ready to make some important decisions and important moves are calling you to make adjustments during the Mercury retrograde. You are ready to make some decisions and it will be the events of October that will house the very steps that you need to take to make these adjustments become part of your life. You will really take a closer look at your partnership issues as you move through October and into November. These will be very heart to heart discussions with yourself and others in your life as you are considering a change of venue for your life. As your view of home and work options expand, you will be having more pulls to consider opportunities that you wouldn't have considered before. You are feeling the pull, and it is not lessening any time soon.

SIX – The opportunity to bring resolution and workable solutions to the situations are giving way to aligning with your inner state of being. You can see that your inner world is beginning to call to you as your aspirations open the door to some new opportunities. With so many problems of the past solved, you are now looking into the future to determine your inner blueprint of growth. You have not had the chance to relax after the trials of the year, and with the opportunity to move into October you will be able to regain your sense of balance. The resolutions that you are seeking have a connection with the inner blueprint that also contains the options you are looking for. You will be able to begin to build your dream and your inner concepts will begin to come into the picture. You are ready to finish the duties and responsibilities that allow you to follow your heart and pursue your desires. October becomes the transition month that moves you from one direction of the past to a whole new direction, one that is aligned with who you are.

SEVEN – The situations that have recently been resolved, will clear the way for you to board the rocket and light the fuse for events to blast you into your future. The challenges that have been the mainstay are dissolved or resolved. With these issues now able to be pushed aside you are able to move into your rightful new direction. The tide has been out of circumstances that have brought you much in the way of opportunities, but soon the tide will begin to come in and bring many new and exciting events and opportunities with it. October's Mercury retrograde will shift your world sufficiently to light the rocket fuse that will blast you into space and launch you into a new career direction. You will go from behind the scenes to all eyes following the spotlight that is now on you. No way to escape this process, life has put you in the right place at the right time to shine the light onto your future direction and great potential.

EIGHT – The efforts and accomplishments that you have attained this year have taken you beyond the past and has placed you onto the pathway to a whole new world.

You will be letting go of the issues that have been the struggles and have taken you below the surface during many a death roll, but you have become stronger during the process and have now overcome many huge issues. You are ready to let go of the past, to embrace the transitions that will give you great rewards and blessings for your journey as you move through October's adjustments. Your inner strength will have the greatest of impact upon your relationships and will move you away from the challenges in these areas and put you onto a whole different path, one that will bring you closer to those that are more like yourself.

NINE – The resolutions and completions of 2007 are getting packaged up and are ready to be moved out of the way. The Mercury retrograde will come into the picture to assist the finalizing scenarios of the situations that are now just blocking your way forward. You have reached the completion of many parts of your life and you are ready to move forward in some important and major ways. Through these completions, you can move issues, circumstances and challenges out of the way. This allows you to make important choices of where you want to go next. This provides you with a whole new focus as your choices and options that come in with the tide. You will review all of the options and know that you will make your choice to leave the environment you are in and sail your ship as the tide moves out when mercury turns direct. You are ready to take action and yet the alignment with your internal direction must also occur. With all of the reasons for staying being completed, finalized and resolved, the wide open sea continues to call you forward. The time has come to set sail and move out with the tide.