Entering into The New Age shifting into the Golden Age DECEMBER 21, 2020

The December Solstice occurs early Monday morning, December 21, 2020, bringing us across the line into a new season, but also to the threshold entering the Golden Age. The Sun provides the spotlight that shines upon a new way of life and the transformation that is upon us all.

Jupiter and Saturn entered the Aquarius Constellation on December 17th and 19th to light up the dawning of a new awareness. This planetary shift brings in the great awakening, as Jupiter expands the Aquarius focus while Saturn brings in a new level of accountability. Aquarius rules humanity and the larger focus of “we the people”. Fairness, justice, right-for-all decisions, actions and purpose will begin to expand with an inherent commitment to right action, respect and regard for the spirit within ourselves and others. This connection heralds in the New Age that sets the standard for the Golden Age as the inner laws of right action are required.

Jupiter opens up this New Age with changes that expand us beyond the old ways to reach a new level of connection to the inner spirit and alignment with right action. Saturn instigates the requirements that become the laws of this New Age through transparency and accountability. Instant karma will be on the rise during this time frame.

With Jupiter and Saturn shifting into Aquarius, their exact conjunction becomes the event that announces the Golden Age on Monday, December 21st, at 10:23 am PST / 1:23 pm EST. The Jupiter/Saturn conjunction ignites this epic transformation with expansion, focus and purpose, ultimately setting the stage for Pluto’s power of influence to roll out the new lay of the land that takes us through 2044 and beyond.

JUPITER INFLUENCE. Jupiter brings expansion into unfamiliar territory to explore and develop our concepts, understanding and connection to a specific theme. Aquarius rules humanitarian focus with the larger scope of the international community. Aquarius expands our concepts of fairness, freedom of expression, individual uniqueness and differences, humanitarian rights, respect and reverence. As Jupiter enters Aquarius the doors of these qualities are opened to bring in new concepts, viewpoints and perspectives.

JUPITER IN AQUARIUS. With Jupiter opening the Aquarius sector to expand our concepts, Saturn joins Jupiter as Saturn demands responsibility and accountability. Having both Jupiter and Saturn moving into Aquarius pushes us beyond our previous attitudes and concepts, especially as Jupiter expands the Aquarius sector in a very fast-paced approach to get with this new program. Jupiter will be in Aquarius beginning December 19, 2020 and continue in Aquarius for all of 2021. Giving us just one year to get up to speed with the New Age, many will keep up, while others will get bogged down with the inability to bring forward the Aquarius concepts of fairness, respect and right-for-all concepts.

SATURN IN AQUARIUS. Saturn brings in the major requirements of responsibility and accountability of these Aquarius concepts as they need to be the cornerstones of the New Age. Accountability is the key focus as fairness, respect and right-for-all concepts become the basic requirements. While Jupiter is expanding these concepts, Saturn follows behind and requires transparency and accountability. The New Age pushes us to get with the program as the New Age demands the old fall away and the unique Aquarius qualities are embraced, expanded and are aligned to emerge to set the new precedence.

JUPITER AND SATURN SETTING THE STAGE. While Jupiter expands this New Age with a dynamic, expansive world during 2021, Saturn will solidify transparency and accountability of the Aquarius qualities, taking three years to place key requirements and reformations into place as the cornerstones are built during 2021, 2022 and 2023. Once the lay of the land is solidified, then Pluto empowers the humanitarian focus for this New Age from 2023 to 2044.

JUPITER AND SATURN OPEN THE DOORWAY OF TIME. With Jupiter and Saturn moving into Aquarius late December, setting the pace for 2021 and beyond, this awareness and consciousness will take a big leap forward, especially as these planets pave the way for Pluto to move into Aquarius in 2023. Pluto's use or mis-use of power will become a powerful era because Saturn's requirements for accountability become the essential characteristics to pass into this era. Between 2021 and 2023 great demands and requirements will be set to align our inner and outer commitment to high ethics, intentions and purpose. Transparency, accountability and immediate karmic feedback will be the natural qualities present within these years. Moving into the Pluto in Aquarius era from 2023 to 2044 gives us additional spiritual awareness, advancing technologies and greater humanitarian focus. The movement of humanity into this New Age is also the jump into the Golden Age in which spiritual connection with purpose and higher laws become the basic requirements of this time. The expansion into this Age and the connection to the requirements become the necessary transition before entrance into the Pluto in Aquarius time frame.

CRITICAL JUMP INTO THE NEW AGE. Many people will have a difficult time making this critical jump into the New Age, as the underlying requirements of fairness, freedom of expression, humanitarian rights, respect and reverence will keep many in the Bay of Old Concepts. With the refusal to expand into the open ocean of Life, the self-imposed restrictions will keep the familiar cesspool of concepts from contaminating the New Age.

2021 HOLDS THE TRANSITION EVENTS. 2021 is universally a FIVE year, prompting change, breakthrough and freedom. The gates into the New Age are open for all, yet some will keep with the familiar old concepts, circling back into the Bay of the Familiar. The rites of passage allow us to move out into the open ocean to explore a new life and new concepts. Aquarius also rules technology and connection with greater awareness, especially as related to our spiritual essence, purpose and passion to make a positive difference.

AQUARIUS TECHNOLOGIES. When Uranus was in Aquarius, the expansion of the internet and technology of awareness throughout the world became as close as the neighbor next door. This aspect of the Aquarius focus on humanity and the interconnectedness that technology provided began to give us awareness of many countries around the world of events that kept humanity constrained as the regimes were spotlighted with atrocities. The world is watching became the common theme as there was no where to hide from the greater awareness and consciousness. How people were treated became the major issue as the demands for decency and alignment with human rights set a new standard where anything lesser was not tolerated.

JUPITER'S HOUSE LOCATION. To understand where Aquarius fits within your Life Purpose, and the requirements for accountability are needed, we can determine the essential elements for each individual by looking at the house location of Aquarius within the Birth Chart. Jupiter moving through Aquarius in 2021 opens the door to the transition into this New Age. Jupiter moves all the way through Aquarius and touches into the early degrees of the Pisces sector in May, which brings in the requirements for alignment of our humanitarian connection and our spiritual purpose and commitment to a higher set of laws. This cosmic consciousness becomes the requirements as the Divine Time is unveiled as a greater awakening to this awareness. Changes on our cellular levels, DNA activation and awakening to our True purpose during this Age has great requirements. 2021 is the window of time to get with the greater program emerging. Without this alignment of consciousness, the realms of existence – physical, mental, emotional and spiritual – have to be united to make the jump and transition into the New Age.

SATURN'S HOUSE LOCATION. This same House Location has Saturn's accountability factors as the key requirements that has no substitute. Transparency, responsibility and accountability to the Aquarius elements of fairness, respect, right-action-for all are the foundational qualities that are essential and subject to the cosmic audits that are inherent within Saturn's rings of spiritual integrity and ethics. Saturn will spend 2.5 years in Aquarius to set the cornerstones and reform the connections with ethics, intentions and commitment to the alignment with these laws. People will become transparent in their core qualities and alignments will become visually clear during the years of 2021, 2022, and 2023. Nothing short of complete alignment with spiritual integrity and full transparency will be the requirement, strict adherence to right action, respect, fairness and ethical expression are basics. To review the house location of Aquarius reveals that expansion by Jupiter but also the ethical alignment and audit with the rings of Saturn. Any deviation from right action will be revealed through the transparency of the technology of the inner and outer essence in motion.

PERSONAL YEAR OF 2021. To understand the qualities that will be required and activated in 2021, look to the Personal Year and how these qualities will be utilized in the commitment to the inner spiritual laws and alignment with the greater awakening for consciousness. Complete awareness of the inner and outer focus on the higher purpose begins the Golden Age.

PREPARING FOR PLUTO TO EMPOWER THE GOLDEN AGE: Jupiter is in Aquarius for 2021, opening the door and expanding the Aquarius New Age. Saturn is in Aquarius from 2021 to 2023, which requires us to put the cornerstones into place as we redefine the New World and the shift into a spiritual value system that brings inner and outer alignment to connect with our mission and purpose. As Saturn paves the way for the powerful planet of Pluto to move into Aquarius, the great awakening illuminates our spiritual purpose and journey on the physical plane. Pluto in Aquarius evolves the Golden Age from 2023 to 2044, expanding the type of technology that reveals the true spiritual self of each individual as the transparency of all qualities becomes visible. Ushering in the Golden Age, key energies come together to enhance this time. The transparency of mission, purpose, motives, ethics and intentions will be visible as life's energies will no longer be hidden, creating a very different world.

HOUSE LOCATION OF AQUARIUS

Discovering Your Life Purpose

By finding the HOUSE LOCATION of AQUARIUS within your Birth Chart, you will open the door to greater understanding of your LIFE PURPOSE. The area that holds the Aquarius vision also brings focus of the qualities that will become the inspiration and gift of the Golden Age.

1ST HOUSE - WITH AQUARIUS IN THE FIRST HOUSE, you will provide a solid image of the Aquarius Age. You have the image of being a potential leader within the various groups, technologies and expansions that will occur within this Aquarius Age. Your sense of fairness, respect and greater vision for positive things for humanity will be pulled into place. This is especially true if you have Aquarius on the rising sign as you have a strong destiny within this transition. Expansive vision, awareness and the ability to connect with many different types of people will bring you into alignment with your True Purpose. With Jupiter expanding your vision and awareness, you will connect with the right technologies and people to enhance your spiritual purpose. You will move into this New Age opening many options and bringing in the personality that enhances fairness, freedom, respect and integrity. As Saturn paves the way and hammers the cornerstones into place, you will emphasize and strengthen these qualities of expression. Saturn in Aquarius impacting your first house will also have tall requirements to adhere to right action as you align with options to move forward and to keep the ethical cornerstones with you inner and outer expression. Through 2023 you will set the pace for this New Age and begin to build your influence with leadership and key projects that give a lot to humanity. As Pluto emerges and continues to expand the technologies and benefits to humanity, you will bring in the power of influence as you embrace the power of influence by recognizing the unique qualities of others and bring respect, dignity and appreciation for others.

2ND HOUSE - WITH AQUARIUS IN THE SECOND HOUSE, you will be able to play an important part with the values that are making an impact for humanity as you bring the new financial perspective into the New Age. You will help to bring a different perspective and attitude to others that is needed in order to make this important jump. The fact that financial greed will no longer be needed or wanted, a complete revision of attitude will have to be installed into society and you will become a very integral part as money, transparency and purpose redefine our purpose and goals in society. Jupiter will expand your awareness and you will see the need to align the outer financial elements with the inner elements of purpose to attain the ethical drives needed to balance the inner and outer actions and goals. Saturn will hammer into place the cornerstones of a new attitude as money, success and attainment is redefined by the transparency of our values aligned with purpose. Through 2023 you will set the new values for this New Age and begin to build your influence by using your integrity and values to fund key projects that give a lot to humanity. As Pluto brings in more influence, you will be able to use your solid values as a way to empower the projects that can be built from the transparency of funding that can benefit and give solutions to humanity. You will have a solid sense of how to organize this focus spearheading many key initiatives that are greatly needed and will benefit others as Pluto continues to empower humanitarian awareness.

3RD HOUSE - WITH AQUARIUS IN THE THIRD HOUSE, you will bring a great deal of information into the realms of understanding to help people revise their thoughts, ideas, concepts and communication. As we make the jump into this New Age, we have to replace our thoughts with completely different concepts and attitudes. You bring fairness, respect and right-for-all concepts into your communication as a way to help inform people of the transformations needed to activate the awakening of a new awareness. You may teach, author or otherwise communicate to others a way to make the transformation possible. The information you have speaks to many people as a way to help the needed expansion spurred by Jupiter. Saturn moving through the third house gives you a way to hammer into place the necessary transparency of ethical cornerstones as you help to chip away the old outdated concepts to be replaced by a different perspective. Your information and communication will be needed by many, which opens up a way to make this jump possible for humanity, especially those that don't know how to go forward into this unknown and unfamiliar terrain. Through 2023 you will bring information and the communication process needed for this New Age and begin to build your influence with knowledge, awareness and understanding as a way to grow the new concepts that are needed by humanity. As Pluto emerges your influence will grow as the clarity of your information will resonate with others, helping to bring all onto the journey of each individual as well as the collective stepping stones to facilitate our journey forward.

4TH HOUSE - WITH AQUARIUS IN THE FOURTH HOUSE, you will be able to provide a solid foundation for many people, whether you become an advocate for others or open up an orphanage for those that need to build back from a position of security. Having the basics of life are important for each person, which is a strong driving force for you. You will begin to put together a program to bring a solid foundation into reality to give others a way forward to build and rebuild a new life. As your perspective enlarges, you will begin to receive ideas and concepts that you can put into motion, helping to have a place that benefits others. Bringing forward a restaurant or a place to live, sleep or be becomes the foundation that expands and drives you forward in your career and purpose to make a difference. Saturn moving through your 4th house gives you the cornerstones that you will build to bring the foundation into existence as you inherently know and understand what is needed to bring a sense of security, understanding and validation as the necessary elements during this New Age. Through 2023 you will set the pace for this New Age and begin to build your influence with the needed cornerstones and necessary foundation that becomes basic to humanity. As Pluto emerges a new level is needed to empower others, prompting you to build the key projects needed by people from many walks of life, giving others the sense of security with a place, house, and community that gives others a place to feel at home. To help influence this process, you will use your natural ability to understand all people, translating the needs for security into the physical needs of others. This opens the door to think outside the box to see what is needed.

5TH HOUSE - WITH AQUARIUS IN THE FIFTH HOUSE, you will think outside the box and come up with many ideas, concepts and creative avenues to bring positive elements into reality. You will expand many projects that enhance and unleash a creative streak in the people around you as you ignite many positive elements in your natural self expression. Aquarius brings in the unique and different, which allows you to open up and explore many concepts and to think outside the box in distinctive ways. You will continue to expand and explore and share ideas with others. You will join others in creative projects but also others will seek you out to connect with the new and different as the New Age requires independence, exceptional concepts and moving beyond the ordinary. Saturn enhancing these creative projects gives you the impetus to decide on your favorite concepts, tasks and projects, which you will engage to bring to fruition as the New Age evolves. Through 2023 you will bring in many creative ideas and concepts into this New Age and begin to build your influence. You will envision key projects that open the door to expand technologies and to redefine all aspects of needs and expressions that benefit people. As Pluto transitions into this house, you will find that your ideas are very influential and many are ahead of their time, but present concepts that expand our viewpoint. With new technologies as well as new concepts, so much will be revised to fit this New Age, giving us all the freedom to expand into our new sense of purpose.

6TH HOUSE - WITH AQUARIUS IN THE SIXTH HOUSE, you will begin to realize your value as you communicate to others, bringing forward counseling skills and wisdom. Not everyone can make the jump into freedom as many require structure and something outside themselves to define their role, values and capabilities. Jumping into freedom will be the overarching focus and will be needed yet not a lot out there as to how this is done, especially as we transition into the Aquarius Age. Change, breakthrough and freedom sounds great, yet if people don't have a concept, or pathway or anything to go on during this transition, paralysis sets in with fear of the unknown and the lack of knowing how to explore options. You will be able to provide a lot of help and wisdom to give people a map of their journey, whether it is with their job, business or just ordinary life choices. Saturn moving through this house gives you the reasons to open up a structured focus to help others find their way through this transition. For you, the journey will seem rather obvious, however for most, the journey will not be obvious at all and their fear will keep them from moving forward. You will be greatly needed in this process as you have the simple instructions needed during this confusing time. Through 2023 you will expand ideas of health and healing as many new technologies, concepts are integrated into projects for this New Age. You will begin to build your influence as key projects open the doors for expanding the health and healing of others, by enhancing the consciousness of how we see ourselves and the global community. You will become the walkway for the larger audience of humanity to see issues of health and healing as a way to empower others. As Pluto emerges, your influence in this area expands and gives you options to bring health and healing into restaurants, home, gyms, health facilities and more.

7TH HOUSE - WITH AQUARIUS IN THE SEVENTH HOUSE, you will begin to have a revolving door that brings a lot of people into your environment. Your ability to connect with everyone is a natural skill set that you have and is why you have a lot of friends and people that consider you a friend. As your communication style is universal, others understand you and also feel understood. This attracts many people to be around you as not everyone has a repertoire of people that give them that same sense of security of feeling understood. With this natural ability, you will be called on to talk with others and to bring people together that seem to be at odds. As a natural diplomat you want to bring everyone together, to unify in harmony. As Saturn moves through this house you will be given tasks and projects that enlist your skills and help to build a positive energy that is cohesive and provides the structure that gives everyone a sense of security. Through 2023 you will bring in a new focus through concepts of working together during this New Age. You will build your influence with leadership by connecting others together, enhancing key projects that bring people together in similar ways allowing these concepts to give a lot to humanity and the greater good. As Pluto emerges you will empower others by bringing people together that can brainstorm and grow concepts that need different skill sets to enhance innovative projects. Having a way to understand all people, you will naturally find the right people to put together for a specific purpose.

8TH HOUSE - WITH AQUARIUS IN THE EIGHTH HOUSE, your insight and inner strength provides a deeper vision of all that is possible. You realize the motives and intentions of others, allowing you to see the driving values that spur people into their chosen direction. You have a way of understanding the deeper elements of people and what makes everyone tick. You can see others in a deep way that gives you great insight and understanding, but also provides you with the type of information that you can use to build groups with similar and familiar goals and pursuits. Your sensitivity gives you great insight and allows you to share information with people in a way that resonates with all people. It is as if you speak the language of all people, making it easier for all to feel a deeper connection with you as well as the subject of discussion. With Saturn moving through this house, you will continue to deepen your connections and find more to join in with others, giving you a greater insight into people. Saturn emphasizes the elements of loyalty and accountability, which accentuates the qualities that others are looking for that all others to trust you and put a great deal of faith in your words. Saturn places a great deal of responsibility on your shoulders as your inner and outer alignment with spiritual integrity will be required. Through 2023 you will set the pace for this New Age and begin to build your influence with leadership and key projects that give a lot to humanity. As Pluto emerges use or misuse of power will be fine-tuned as instant karma of any misuse recoils through transparency and the higher laws come into reality. The deeper elements of your life will bring greater pressure to connect with right action as your thoughts transition into words and actions. Thoughts become the intentions with efforts for results. Making the transition and shifting the stepping stones become the tall order needed to align thoughts, intentions with integrity.

9TH HOUSE - WITH AQUARIUS IN THE NINTH HOUSE, your philosophy and beliefs bring all people together. Speaking in a very universal and spiritually connected way, you are able to have the type of relationship that gives others a way to align with their greater philosophy and approach to life itself. Setting goals with others, you begin to look at all that is possible to set up and complete with others. Also you have the type of beliefs that aim for the highest and reach for the stars with a sense that all is possible and that nothing is out of reach. You believe in yourself and others, which gives many the confidence needed to bring in very lofty goals that with a positive attitude become possible. Saturn moving through this house allows you to connect with others that have the same attitude, approach and beliefs, which feeds upon itself and becomes the brainstorming type of ladder that gives others a greater outlook than they would have on their own. Redefining what is possible, many people will want to join in with your projects as a way to maintain belief in their own pursuits. As Pluto shifts into your ninth house, your philosophy, beliefs and inspirational communications begins to have an impact on others. The importance of alignment with the highest purpose requires adherence to the basic laws of spiritual integrity. Your goals and aspirations to bring your philosophy as a way to live your beliefs brings forward your actions as the perspective that others will see your true purpose. The ninth house rules religion only as an outer focus that houses your true beliefs. The house of God becomes transparent to view the true inner connection with the Divine energy and highest purpose of Life. Alignment with right action becomes the true testimony and transparency of your True Self.

10TH HOUSE - WITH AQUARIUS IN THE TENTH HOUSE, your career is geared to build business that benefits others and brings together many groups of people that have similar focus and pursuits. You will have the opportunity to build an organizational environment that works for the individual and global communities. As the focus of the Aquarius Age will bring in a very different perspective, the business arena will be geared toward the success of the mission and purpose and not so much for the financial gears to bring profits to some and not others. The expansion of benefiting the greater good will be the mission, purpose and the profit of mankind, not the accumulation of wealth. Wealth will be redefined and will take on a very different meaning as the focus of purpose will be geared toward the spiritual benefit of others. Saturn moving through this house allows you to see the needed structures and organization needed as well as revisions needed to redefine our purpose. Business and finance will be completely redefined as the end result of profit and greed will be replaced by having a wealth of skills that make a difference in the world of others. As Pluto shifts into your tenth house, you will be pushed to align your business mission and purpose to the benefit of others. The redefinition of business will be put into motion as Jupiter and Saturn push you out of the old way of operating and propel you into directions that will make a positive difference in the world of humanity. You will be geared to set up the business models that are very different than those geared to benefit the bottom line, as the value of business will now depend upon the benefit to humanity and that all of the mission statements are geared to make a positive difference to greater humanity, bringing the best people into positions to give to others, to value people, workers, clients, the community with the greatest alignment of spiritual integrity within the business arenas. Leadership within business will look very different than before and the stakeholders will judge a company's portfolio value as to the benefit the business brings to the greater community.

11TH HOUSE - AS AQUARIUS IN THE ELEVENTH HOUSE brings in the larger audience and global communities, you will be in touch with others that are coming together in this time of humanity awakening to a different world. With Aquarius in the eleventh house you will have your mind connected to this greater purpose and be able to communicate to others in a way that speaks to people as individuals but also as part of the collective consciousness that is evolving. You will build a network of friends and comrades that are part of your journey as you connect with people and have important discussions of this greater consciousness that is building a larger awareness and awakening to this perspective. With Saturn moving through this house, you will begin to see the importance of building the type of structures that will greatly assist others in this process especially as communication is used to bring information to others. The evolution of people will be your focus as you understand the importance of the journey and will see the steps needed to share with others that will assist all people in their individual and collective process. As Pluto shifts into Aquarius, your focus and connection to the larger scope of humanity will help to lead the vision of the future evolution of humanitarian pursuits. You may be on the leading edge of technology linking people together and bringing more of the transparency to enhance a greater understanding of all aspects of people. You have a very international awareness and see a greater vision of what is possible for people. With this broad framework you will be able to become the diplomatic ambassador to connect people together for a similar purpose. Growing and expanding the connections of all people will open doors to use your ideas and beliefs in ways that bring great benefits to even out the unfairness of the past.

12TH HOUSE - AS AQUARIUS IN THE TWELFTH HOUSE connects your karma and destiny to this time, you will realize that you have come into this time with a very specific purpose. You will be able to see the overlay of the outside world as it has become the perspective that you know as if you have walked this journey before. As a choice to emerge in awareness at this time, you will begin to realize that certain directions are pulling you into place and gives you the roles to embrace as the mission and purpose come to life. You will step onto your true path and bring into manifestation your spiritual qualities and expand the awareness that has emerged inside. Seeking the right direction and expression of your intuitive self, you will become the very stepping-stones of your journey. With Saturn moving through this house, you will build important concepts that create a foundation of understanding that allows you to develop your new focus, mission and purpose. Saturn's accountability gives you the impetus to align your awareness to the journey that others will need to have. Because you have defined this journey for yourself, your map becomes a valuable concept that you will share giving others a matrix to overlay onto their own life as they discover, explore and find their way to their journey. As Pluto shifts into Aquarius, you will turn the page to the next chapter in your Life Book. You are here to make a difference in the world of others. Your destiny is calling to you to participate in a big way. You will feel the deja vu feeling that this is the time you have been waiting for, as if your life has now become the show on the stage that is under the spotlight and ready to roll out your true calling. Pluto moving through your 12th house instigates your inner essence and you begin to know your script and role as if this is the true purpose. Your intuition will guide you into your directions and the alignment of your inner and outer self will become the true connection you have been looking for. Bringing your Life into Divine alignment becomes your greatest gift to yourself and others.

PERSONAL YEAR OF 2021

Using the universal understanding of numerology along with the impact of the outer world on our personal life purpose, we can see the transitions required to make the jump into the New Age. Gaining awareness of the great awakening that is occurring as we come into alignment with spiritual integrity through transparency and accountability, the transformation of our Life Purpose is at the heart of the calling of our spirit.

The transition into the New Age coincides with the movement from 2020 into 2021. The shift from the FOUR universal year demanding accountability and transparency has shaken us out of our comfort zone. As we transition into the FIVE universal year of 2021, we will move into a time of change, breakthrough and freedom. Even as we were shaken out of our comfort zone, the adjustments that were blowing in our life will become the blessing in disguise as we move into our Personal Year of 2021. Having made many adjustments, we will be more flexible to the change, transitions and breakthroughs that are earmarked for 2021. We will bring new qualities into 2021 that push us into new directions as a new focus begins to emerge to bring the personal energies into manifestation. As the universal year of 2021 brings the FIVE focus of change, breakthrough and freedom into our life, we will each have a specific purpose that will become our true calling as designated by the Personal Year.

Moving these qualities into 2021, the infusion of our spirit, purpose and journey will reveal the pathway and light we bring to this Age. By looking at the qualities that will lead the way, we can begin to realize our purpose and to see the focus of this time as the journey of our life as we enter this New Age. As 2021 opens the door for change, we respond with our ability to breakthrough the old barriers to come into freedom. Many will be challenged by the first step of change as awakening to this New Age requires our ability to transformation. The natural challenge to breakthrough old barriers will be the requirement that brings in the inner and outer alignment of accountability and transparency as sandbags of old beliefs and ethical behaviors drop away.

On the other-side of the breakthrough into 2021, freedom is found, experienced and embraced. Connection with the true inner essence is needed to embrace freedom, as for many freedom becomes the void, the unknown and requires our own inner connection with the Divine Source to move into our right place. For many this shines the light to the lack of connection with the inner essence and a remedial journey becomes the needed prerequisite. Humanity has various people along this journey providing a supported process, but the journey must be walked by each person. Understanding the importance of 2021 by correlating the qualities you will bring forward opens the door to envisioning your journey. Alignment with the inner intuitive connection and spiritual sense of purpose is founded on the spiritual integrity we bring into this time of transition.

To determine YOUR Personal Year during the universal FIVE year of 2021, take your birth month and day, add it to the year of 2021. Your Personal Year for 2021 opens the door to the qualities that will pave the way to the shift into the Golden Age.

Example; May 11 becomes  $5 + 11 = 16$ . Add 16 to 2021, which becomes 2037. Add the digits together until you have one single digit;  $2 + 0 + 3 + 7 = 12$ , added together  $1 + 2 = 3$ . This person is in a THREE Personal Year as we experience a FIVE Universal Year.

Another Example; You will get the same number if you add your birth month and day to the FIVE year of 2021 ( $2 + 0 + 2 + 1 = 5$ ). May 11 becomes  $5 + 11 + FIVE$  year becomes  $5 + 11 + 5 = 21$ , added together becomes  $2 + 1 = 3$ . This person is in a THREE Personal Year as the Universe is in a FIVE.

Look to YOUR Personal Year and to those of family and friends to help give us the MAP of our Life Journey into the Golden Age.

ONE – AS THE UNIVERSE IS IN A FIVE YEAR AND YOU ARE IN A ONE, you will be starting a new phase, your new journey. All of the old will fall away, revealing the budding qualities that are important to be brought forward. You will be excited to explore all of the new opportunities that are emerging and bring you to a time that pushes you into new directions that are giving you freedom of expression. Your independence has always come during the universal FIVE year of change, so when you feel stifled you try to push change, but alas you always have to wait for the outer elements of the FIVE year to dawn into existence. Now that the New Age is dawning, you are ready to jump into action and begin to connect with people that give you the freedom to be yourself.

The major shifts and changes for the ONE year occur;

April – major shifts and changes that move you into new directions, focus and purpose

July – shift of career, business and financial pursuits that are more aligned with your new purpose

September – open door to step into your new role, new image and to align with your new mission

TWO – AS THE UNIVERSE IS IN A FIVE YEAR AND YOU ARE IN A TWO, you will expand your sensitivities aligning your inner and outer connections with intuition and awareness of the New Age. You will grow your connectivity with others in many different ways from the subtle to the more obvious. The type of people you will have moving in and through your life will be very diverse giving you the opportunity to assess your level of understanding with your self expression. You will grow your diplomatic skills and expand your natural capabilities to work with very different and diverse groups of people. The changes in the outside world will swing and impact many people in your life, which prompts you to make major adjustments. You will also find yourself giving others the support needed even as you may only have your own counsel to support yourself. As others need your help, you will feel propelled to provide the foundation and stability to others. This effort is very important as you have to put the well-being of others in front of your own, which in returns gives you the comfort you need as well.

The major shifts and changes for the TWO year occur:

March – provides the major changes that are the result of Mercury turning direct to roll out the new alignment with the Aquarius New Age and the support others need.

June – provides the shift and changes in communication that will have an impact on your career, business and financial pursuits.

August – brings in new directions that point you into new directions that open up a new purpose, mission and direction as coordinated with supporting others.

December – opens up your connections with others as you bring change, adjustments into your environment. You will begin to be the support that allows others to appreciate your stability.

THREE – AS THE UNIVERSE IS IN A FIVE YEAR AND YOU ARE IN A THREE, you will be able to adapt to many different situations that actually expand your self expression allowing others to see your natural skill set and capabilities. With your ability to think and be outside the box, you will begin to use skills of creativity to bring more positivity and optimism into your expression. You naturally gravitate toward change and it provides you with the freedom you crave and use as permission to stretch your creative concepts beyond previous boundaries. While others may struggle with change, you use it as a cover to bring in different ideas painting them all with different colors as a way to go beyond the previous constraints by bringing fun and enthusiasm into the picture. Your prolific roll out of creative ideas continues to attract people to you as you paint ideas on the freedom canvas so easily while others don't know what to do with freedom or the abundance of options. You create form, structure, organization and all things that give people a feeling of security without taking the freedom away from the equation. This skill sets you apart from others and continues to be the attraction that pulls people toward you.

The major shifts and changes for the THREE year occur:

February – brings major changes as the Mercury retrograde in Aquarius provides the course correction that gives you foresight to envision the pathway of the future.

May – aligns your new purpose with your spiritual goals that are the result of your vision and the future pathway pulling you into new position as career, business and financial goals opens your future.

July – gives you a new purpose and shows you the pathway that puts you in front, providing the leadership role from having the connection with spirit and vision of the pathway forward.

November – additional changes pushes you beyond the past and into positions that enhance the leadership role that you have stepped into.

FOUR – AS THE UNIVERSE IS IN A FIVE YEAR AND YOU ARE IN A FOUR

– your response to change is to bring ideas into formation and begin to build many new and exciting concepts. You will want to bring structure and organization to your world as changes fly all over the place, you want to have a sense of logic and organization to it all. You have ideas that are sitting on the shelf that you can now begin to use as if the change of seasons has spurred you into action to correlate ideas along with the changes emerging. You gravitate toward bringing ideas into reality and you use the changes in the outside world as the signal that the time has come to instigate a new theme of ideas and concepts. You may think you don't like change, but in reality, you like to organize the change as something wonderful and dress it up with a new theme. This helps you to make the adjustments needed and gives you a way to pull the changes together into a larger concept.

The major shifts and changes for the FOUR year occur;

January – brings in the changing situations that give you the impetus to take action and move your life into new directions.

April – accentuates the changes within your career, business and financial pursuits. You will find that your commitment to build your career capabilities gets a major step forward.

June – Opening new doors, the Mercury retrograde will emphasize the changes that you are pursuing and the efforts you want to build your new life.

October – gives you the shifts and changes needed to take major steps forward. Mercury turning direct late October opens the door to changes with your image, attitude and purpose.

FIVE – AS THE UNIVERSE IS IN A FIVE YEAR AND YOU ARE ALSO IN A FIVE YEAR, you will have to be aligned and instep with the universal energy and focus. You will be able to adapt to the situations and realize that you are inwardly and outwardly aligned, giving you an easier time with change, or if very resistant, you are not given much variance, but have to get aligned with the program. Over the years you have learned that it is more successful to adapt to the situations and work with the energies than not. The ability to be up at the summit and to see the opportunities coming available will give you great inspiration and enthusiasm as you can easily release the challenges of the past in favor of the sunshine and rolling hills of options. You have to be ready to shift into a new environment and begin to set a new standard and approach to your life. Freedom is associated with the FIVE year yet not all people know how to transition into freedom. To have a reliance on the outside world as the authority rather than the inner essence as the authority, the outer sense of freedom brings uncertainty because of the fact that freedom also resembles a void. Knowing how to move ethics and creativity into the larger scope of freedom brings the advantage into the FIVE year.

The major shifts and changes for the FIVE year occur;

March – emphasizes the options emerging within your career, business and financial areas. As the result of February’s Mercury retrograde, the course correction brings in many new possibilities

May – brings in changes that push you to align with important shifts to enhance your new sense of purpose and mission.

September – catapults you into a revised focus to push in a new level of changes that have been evolving all year long. Making a new jump into yet another series of shifts, you will bring in more spontaneous options.

December – You will be ready to jump into action with the changing situations that seem to evolve on a continual basis. Through this next series of changes you will bring more capabilities forward to use in new ways.

SIX – WITH THE UNIVERSE IN A FIVE YEAR AS YOU ARE IN A SIX, the outside world will bring changes allowing you to make adjustments within your home, work and relationship settings. You went through a lot of changes last year and now in 2021, you will bring the changes into your life to make important adjustments. You will look more at the long term process to align the changes and adjustments to the goals you have decided and the commitment to bring into reality. Your home and work situations will bring many changes into your environment which has an impact on your relationships. You will also address key concepts dealing with health and healing. You will want to make the adjustments to bring about efficiency and well-being, which become the ultimate resulting goals of the changes. Whether you make adjustments in your schedule for the time needed to go to the gym or to walk along the beach or something to give yourself the time to bring forward well-being as you will make the room to bring improvements into your life.

The major shifts and changes for the SIX year occur;

February – brings in the Mercury Retrograde, which will create the shift of people around you. You will also find adjustments within your home, work and relationships, which each get an infusion of people as the changes occur.

April – With a new focus of business, career and financial areas, you will have to make the adjustments necessary, which you will easily transition into the new concepts. You will lead the way for others.

August – brings in yet another layer of changes within your work environment. You are able to quickly make the adjustments as the changing concepts seem to be a natural evolution for you.

November – emphasizes the next phase of your career focus as you have the skills that others look to for stability. Your home and work environment benefit from your ability to make adjustments easily.

SEVEN – WITH THE UNIVERSE IN A FIVE YEAR AS YOU ARE IN A SEVEN, the changes that are happening in the outer world will prompt you to make great strides with major personal breakthroughs in your attitude, understanding and outlook. The SEVEN focus is to look at your life from a deeper perspective and to see how far you have come and yet the additional changes you need to make. To deepen our viewpoint, we will see the outside world as a stage and see our life as a role we play and our purpose as the key element of importance as our true essence. The outer world becomes distant and has lesser importance than the inner qualities and connection, reconfirming that our true essence is our inner self, not the outer world. Having things and positions in the outside world cannot fulfill our inner quest which brings us to a greater awareness and becomes the great awakening of our True Self. From this new level of understanding, we begin to search for our connection to the Divine that enables us to deepen our sense of purpose and value of our Life.

The major shifts and changes for the SEVEN year occur;

January – brings shifts and changes that have you review your career, business and financial directions. You will decide on many areas you want to change, which present the options in February.

March – opens the door to new directions as you come into decisions that shifted your direction in February and become a reality in March.

July – presents you with yet another series of changes as you have broken through the previous barriers of hesitation. Allowing your true talents to emerge and be seen, you will bring out the magic of talents that become great benefit to others.

EIGHT – WITH THE UNIVERSE IN A FIVE YEAR AS YOU ARE IN AN EIGHT,

you will experience a lot of changes that come into your life very early in the year to push you out of the old situations and into many new situations. You will have to jump into action and be on the run all year long as changes continue to point you into one direction and then the other. You are coming into your own, being in lockstep with situations that push you to bring out your true talents. You may want to feel more in control, but the situations require that you respond quickly bringing out your natural talents to each situation as if it is a pop quiz of events. This brings your talents into display giving others the view needed to appreciate you and all that you have built over the last eight years. With February opening the door to implement the course correction associated with the Aquarius Age, you will find that you have to jump into action in February and not have time to look back. You will continue along your fast-paced year as you respond to the changing situations in the outside world.

The major shifts and changes for the EIGHT year occur;

February – emphasizes the Mercury retrograde that brings changing situations to the people, places and things around you. Your career and business pursuits will begin to line up with the Aquarius Age as you have a natural atonement to the new energies emerging.

June – brings in yet another Mercury retrograde opening up major information and communication that presents a new environment. You will quickly adjust and open the door to participate in a major way.

October – preparing for the Mercury retrograde focus of relationships and connections with people, you will begin to see those around you that seem to be on a similar pathway and bring in a new attitude for the New Age.

NINE – WITH THE UNIVERSE IN A FIVE YEAR AND YOU IN A NINE, the changes that come along become the very situations that shift you into new directions. Veering your life away from all you have known, 2021 holds many changes that close the doors of the past to push you into new directions, new environments as the terrain makes major adjustments along the way., You will see the transition out of the old environment into the new, unfamiliar environment that pushes you to revise your goals, approach, attitude and perspective to align with your new sense of purpose. The FIVE ruling the outside world brings in major changes as the NINE closes many doors, completing major chapters in your life. Clearing the deck to prepare for your new focus, purpose and goals, you will see the clean canvas as opportunities to bring in renewed goals, aligning with the person you have become. The new environment found in January will evolve into the major shift of outer situations as May provides the transitions into your new focus. Many people, places and things will be cleared off your stage as the close of one chapter opens up a new stage with a new theme, purpose and mission.

Alpha Life Trends

The major shifts and changes for the NINE year occur;

January – brings in a new environment, with shifting terrain and many changing situations that close the door on old situations. You will have to step into a new focus prompting you to take action and move your life into new directions.

May – coming to the edge of your old life, you have to step into making major changes that instigate your new life. Letting go of the old people, places and things, you are met with many new options.

October – pushes you to accept the new energies emerging as your life will take on a completely different look, feel and purpose. Coming into this new focus requires inner strength and a sense of adventure.
